

HEARING CONSERVATION CERTIFICATION COURSE

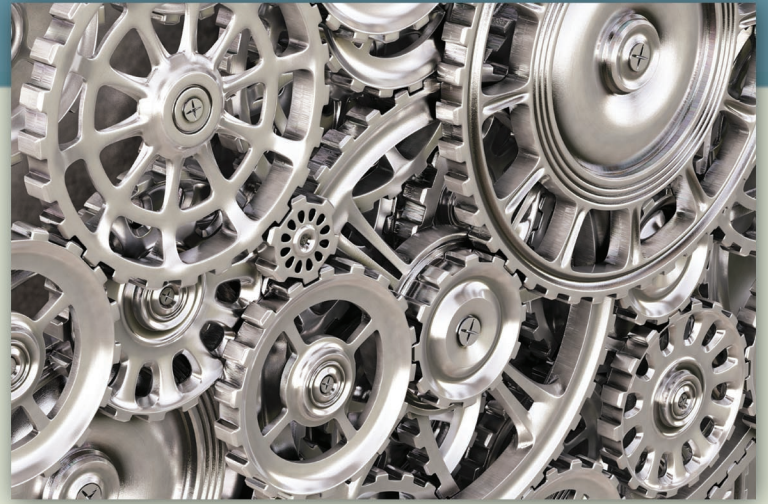

SOUTHEAST'S FINEST HEARING CONSERVATION TRAINING

CAOHC CERTIFICATION

This course is designed for individuals with a responsibility for occupational hearing conservation programs and others who are interested in the preservation of human hearing. There are no prerequisite courses or experience necessary.

The Council for Accreditation in Occupational Hearing Conservation (CAOHC) has granted approval for this course. Successful completion results in a five year accredited certification. Recertification is required prior to the end of the initial five year period and can be accomplished by attending the second day of the certification course.

Experienced Industrial Audiologist, Board-Certified CAOHC Course Director and Professional Supervisor, Dr. NaTalla McCoy or staff will be happy to answer any questions by phone at 904-318-3763 during normal business hours or by e-mail at drmccoy@mccoyinstitute.org. You may also direct general questions regarding CAOHC certification and pro-cedures to CAOHC in Milwaukee, Wisconsin at 414-276-5338 or to www.caohg.org.

Many workers are exposed to industrial noise in a variety of work environments.

DR. NATALLA MCCOY

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Dr. McCoy obtained her Doctorate in Audiology from Nova Southeastern University. Prior to obtaining her doctorate, Dr. McCoy graduated from the University of Florida, with a degree in Communicative Sciences and Disorders. Upon returning to Jacksonville, she established a private practice as the Owner and Clinical Director of the McCoy Institute of Hearing and Balance.

As a board-certified audiologist, Dr. NaTalla McCoy evaluates, diagnoses, and treats hearing and balance disorders in all age groups. Dr. McCoy's clinical focus is in the treatment and care of seniors, active duty military, and veterans. In addition, she has performed hearing conservation work for national corporations such as Kraft Heinz as well as other local businesses in the greater Jacksonville area. Her years of study and practice in the field of hearing conservation have qualified her to serve as an expert witness in legal proceedings pertaining to occupational hearing loss.

Dr. McCoy's outreach efforts afforded her the opportunity to tour Central America in 2011. In Guatemala Dr. McCoy provided audiological services to those who otherwise could not afford it. Dr. McCoy is a Clinical Director for the Special Olympics Florida Healthy Hearing Program. She also serves as a course director for the Council for Accreditation in Occupational Hearing Conservation. Dr. McCoy is proud to serve her community as an ambassador for healthy hearing.
